

Brethren,

October is here and Fall is about to show it's face. The trees are starting to turn and show their beautiful colors, the Grand Architect of the Universe is doing his handy work over South Jersey. We may not be the Grand Architect of the Universe, but we can still do our part in the grand scheme of things. The lodges in our district need to get more support from their brethren. The officers need to be more supportive to their lodges and their district.

Fraternally,
David Exel
Worshipful Master

From the Senior Warden's Chair:

If elected as Master of Shekinah Lodge in December, I am looking for a few good brethren to fill out my line of officers for 1997. If you would like to take a chair, please let me know.

Fraternally,
Wm. Tony Loteck
Senior Warden

Brethren,

The response to our appeal for donations for the chair lift project has been great so far. Our thanks to the brethren who made donations for their generosity. There is still a way to go, though, before we have the necessary funds to start the project.

The Square Club is planning a couple of fund-raisers to raise money for this worthwhile endeavor, and is planning a sizable donation towards this project. One of our generous brethren has pledged that when we have reached $1,000.00 in donations, he will match it with his own $1,000.00 donation.

There will be a space included on your dues notices to allow for donations to this fund. Please consider making a donation in this way.
