

September 1991

Brethren,

Our summer refreshment is now over and we are once again back on labor. I sincerely hope you have enjoyed your summer and vacation escapes.

At our regular meeting, Brother Howard Young will be presiding as I will be away on vacation. I ask that you come out and support your "next Master" in his first attempt at occupying the East. I have met with Howard and reviewed those business items that will be discussed.

A note of interest for all the brethren is as follows:

1. A one dollar, one time, Grand Lodge assessment will be included on our dues notice for 1992. This assessment was passed at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge on April 25, 1991. The proceeds will go to the cost of refurbishing the organ at The George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria, VA. The organ was originally donated by The Grand Lodge of New Jersey some years ago.
2. Due to our declining membership and increasing insurance costs, The Grand Lodge Insurance Assessment will increase from $1.00 per member to $1.25 per member for 1992. If you are presently current with your dues, your 1992 dues will be $32.25.

Fraternally,

Ron
