

September 1992

Brethren:

Have you ever asked, "What can I do? I'm only one person!" If so, the following story might help you as it did me.

Years ago, on sun-baked land near Topeka, Kansas, stood a toppled farmhouse. Nearby, in tangled weeds, was a weather-beaten water pump. From it's handle hung a bucket filled with water. Deep down beneath the pump was water, cold and refreshing. To wagon trains heading west, the well was an oasis to travelers and their weary animals. Those drinking noticed a crude sign saying, "Friends, prime the pump. Use all the water you need. If you drink the water in the bucket, fill it so others will not go thirsty."

For thirty years, wagon trains came to that well. Thousands drank from the bucket, but each time it was only one person who refilled the bucket and hung it on the pump. One person made the difference!

Helping others isn't limited to long ago. Today, you can accept a kindness and pass it on, by visiting a sick brother. You can pump support into an officer, who has worked hard to perfect his part of the ritual, by being there to see him do it. You can refill the Shekinah spirit by BEING a Mason, not just a member. You CAN make a difference!

Whose bucket can you fill today?

Fraternally,
HOWARD YOUNG
Worshipful Master
