From the East

Spring has made its way to us and with it the start of second quarter of our Masonic Year. The first quarter was a trying one for our Lodge as we were inundated with sewer water and the worry of paying the associated clean-up costs. But, we came through it and will hopefully come to a settlement with the Riverside Sewage Authority soon.

The settlement should include some money for damage repairs. We will use this to repair our flooring in the kitchen, replace some ruined wall board and give everything a fresh coat of paint. We will be needing strong hands to do this work so keep this in mind. It is a busy season coming upon us. Your Lodge will need your help in the coming months.

We will also be paying our plumber for installing two backflow preventers in our system. This flooding tragedy shouldn't be happening again. We have also been assured that the authority will be taking care of their "root problem" on Chester Ave. We will see if that will really happens!

On March 19th, we had our Table Lodge with Mt. Holly No. 14. It was a smashing success! If you missed it, you missed out on a great evening. Approximately 90 brothers attended this event with some coming from as far away as Atlantic City. RW Deputy Grand Master Larry Plaskett spoke for a good half-hour filling us in on the Grand Lodge accomplishments in 2001-2002 and his plans for his upcoming term. RW Junior Grand Warden Daniel Wilson was also in attendance. Both on these dignitaries had great evening enjoying the interaction with members of our Lodges.

Many thanks go out to the following people: WB Stephen Kelly, Bro. Jerry Williams, Bro. Stephen "Cooky" Coyle, WB Tom Phipps, Bro. Tom Reed, and Bro. Marcus Carroll. These gentlemen spent many hours at the Hall that evening making sure everything went just right for the event. I must also extend my thanks to the brothers from Mt. Holly Lodge especially Bro. Norm Fortner who was the chief cook. You all know the spirit of Freemasonry and exemplified it perfectly that evening. You have my utmost gratitude.

Our planned "Rededication to Freemasonry" was cancelled for the last meeting due to illness and unavailability of a video projector. I am hoping to run this in the near future and will send out special invitations to everyone about this wonderful program.

We discussed the survey results this past meeting. A couple of the results were surprising. The membership is in favor of renting out our hall to help with income. Also, most are in favor of continuing with the sign effort. Your officers and Hall Trustees will continue to pursue both of these items. Regular Hall rentals would allow the Hall Trustees to become more self-sufficient and a sign would allow us to advertise some of our events, especially our fund raisers.

Dear Brothers:

Thank you so much to the men who gave up part of their Saturday afternoon to help out my Rainbow Girls.

Having you there to serve the lunch for our Grand Officers Day gave me one less thing to worry about. Everyone did a great job, and we really appreciate your support. We are very fortunate to be sponsored by a Lodge that gives us so much support.

I truly believe that by working together, we can make each other stronger, and I look forward to future opportunities when we can work together again.

Sincerely,
Anita Cole

Masonic Light

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

There are a few words in Masonry that cannot be found elsewhere. Cowan and Cable-tow being two of them. Some words are so common to us and yet if you asked anyone outside the Lodge they wouldn't know what you were talking about. The names of the two pillars in the porch of Solomon's Temple for example. Only a Freemason and a learned Bible Scholar would now these two names.

There are also many words used in Freemasonry that have totally different meaning when not used in the context of the Lodge such as landmark and craft. As I sat at our recent Table Lodge another word came to me. Fellowship.

This word can be used in many contexts. You can receive a Fellowship from a University. If you're a member of an association, you could be named as a fellow and thus a member of a Fellowship. The members of a company or small group are known as Fellowship, such as Fellowship of the Ring, the great Tolkien classic.

But, in Freemasonry, fellowship takes on a special meaning. That evening I sat and watched, undertaker converse with laborer, lawyer with veteran, computer tech with prison guard. All had such varying backgrounds, likes and dislikes, pasts and presents. Yet, they were all sitting there, enjoying the fellowship that comes with being on the level with your fellow man.

There are not many places you can see this happen. The only other I can think of is a sporting event. You can sit in-between a doctor and a steel worker and when the home team scores, you are up slapping hands and patting backs. True fellowship. The difference between this and our organization is that after our meetings are over, you can still be on the level with your Masonic brother. After the game is over, you won't see the doctor and steel worker sitting down to talk about the days events.

Each meeting, I stress to the brethren to stay at least an hour extra, outside the lodge room enjoying each other's company. Talk with your brother, listen to his life story, tell him yours. Inside and outside the lodge room, you will always find an ear to listen, to help you with problems, even if they are personal. Share a joke. A drink. A remembrance. This is a true gift from the Grand Architect that we must not waste!

This month we will be bringing five new Master Masons into our world. They have tasted the fellowship of Masonry through their mentors and instructors. They are eager for more. They are longing for the day when they can not only sit in Lodge with their brothers, but outside the Lodge with their friends.

Come out this month and show our new brothers the fellowship of Masonry. Make a difference in their lives and allow them to make a difference in yours. And after the next meeting, stay awhile afterward and enjoy your lodge fellowship!

WB Lucian D. Craig, PM, Secretary

Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all, the power of going out of one's self, and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in
