Brother Cedars:

Since our last printing of the Sch... June, quite a number of functions have been taken place, so I will try to report on a few.

The 4th of July was a big day for our Forest. Starting with the Takoma Park Parade in the morning, the weather was hot and so were our units, a beautiful trophy was received for their fine showing. We continued the day with our Beef Roast, sponsored by the Uniformed Bodies. President "Eddie" Daniels and Clarence Binnix, Chairman of the Committee did a splendid job. THANKS FELLOWS.

If any one of you would have stopped by the Bethesda Bowling Lanes on a Monday night for the last two months, you too, could have joined in with the rest of us in an evening of fun and also would have helped to contribute to Muscular Dystrophy Research. Under the direction of "Al" Fleisher and our M.D. Chairman, "Eddie" Berardi, I think everyone attending has had an enjoyable evening and I hope this can grow into something much larger, a District #20 Bowling League - "Why not?" If interested, leave "Al" Fleisher or myself hear from you and if there is enough interests shown, we will then talk to the other Forests.

If anyone knows of a Brother who is ready to become a Tall Cedar, talk to him and be sure to get his petition in for the September meeting, so we can ballot on him and have everything ready to take him in at our October Ceremonial. I need the help of all present members, if I am going to reach my goal for new members this year.

YOUR SENIOR DEPUTY

Cedars:

Well Brothers, summer is over and I hope it has been a restful and relaxing one for everyone.

We had a successful beef roast, seems like it happened ages ago. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, and it was held in a very nice location. The committee is to be congratulated

Our September meeting has been designated Senior Deputy Night by Grand Tall Cedar "Bud" Mosenheimer, and I want to thank him for this opportunity. I want to invite each and every one of you to be at our September meeting. The business meeting will be short, just long enough to perform the business of the Forest. We then will have entertainment. We will have a judo demonstration. It's something I've never had the opportunity to see and hope it will meet with your approval. The refreshments hopefully will be up to our usual standard of excellence. I've been working on having some "Go Go Girls" but can't promise they will be there---I'm kidding, of course!!!!??

This night will be successful for me, in spite of the many flubs I'll make, if I see fifty (50) or so "green hats" in our Lodge Hall.

Cedarly, Joe

Grand Tall's Message Cont'd from page 1

Our September meeting is Senior Deputy night so come out and give Senior Deputy "Joe" Maceira your support. He has a fine evening planned for you so bring your petition and all come. See you then.

Cedarly Bud

REAL QUESTION

Do you know what good clean fun is ?

No, what good is it?

Brother Cedars:

The long, hot summer of '66 is history by now. It seems like just a couple of weeks ago we were getting ready for the 4th of July Parade and Bar-B-Q, both of which were a great success with our units getting a trophy at the parade and a fine turnout for the picnic. Ranger Captain Clarence Biinnix and his crew have this down to a science... and did a fabulous job.

Also in July, our Drum and Bugle Corps played host to Capitol's Drum and Bugle Corps at a cockout at the Forders. We (53 total) got together -- with instruments and the neighborhood will never be the same! A "swinger" to say the least.

Last, but not least, Prince Georges' Officers found July a good month to pay off their steak dinner bot with Montgomery's Officers. It was one of the most delicious steaks I've ever eaten, but its difficult to digest steak with all that weeping and wailing.

You, who missed Montgomery's Monday nights at Bethesda Bowling Lanes this summer missed a lot of fun. We enjoyed the bowling and M. D. is richer too. Special credit is due "Al" Fleisher,

Be sure to put October 15 on your calendar... District 20 Ceremonial, and a full day is planned. Now is the time to invite those Saps you've been thinking of bringing into the Forest. The Saps who come in on this meeting will see Cedarism at its best. Help the Forest grow, now is the time.

Cedarly,

Jim

6) SCRIBBLES FROM THE SCRIBE

Oh, Oh: another summer past, and only about half of those trips and things done. Oh well! Save them for next year, maybe we can get them done then. And it was a lot of fun, wasn't it?

Got news that Don Manley, Ye Olde Chief Sidonian, is joining the Marine Corps at Camp LeJeune for a training spell, then to overseas. Haven't found out who is getting the training -- Uncle Sam's Navy (Ye Olde Chief Sidonian or the Gyrenes. One thing for sure, we finally got so we could take Don's Sidonian tactics, but don't know if the Marines can. Our best wishes go with you, Don, and hurry back. We'll be on guard for new tricks you just might be bringing back with you.

Got to get some more dues notices out. Been Carrying 49 1966 cards and 16 1965 cards around, they're getting kind of heavy. Will be glad to send the cards out in exchange for the necessary coin of the realm. $10.00 for 1966's and $8.00 for 1965's. The 1965's will be up for suspension come January 1, 1967.

Grand Tall and I are having an argument. He claims we'll get 10 new members in this fall, and I claim we'll only get 5. He's got big plans for the District Ceremonial on October 15th when he can give the candidates a real time. If you've got a buddy you'd like to see get the works, get going with the petition. Incidentally, candidates in the last six months of the year only pay $5.50 dues plus $25.00 initiation. This makes a total of $30.50 instead of $35.00. Put remember, five's the limit, I'd hate to lose that argument with the Grand Tall.

Listed the sick, etc., in another place.

Yep, still think that "Faith" should be added to "Fun", "Frolic" and "Fellowship".

SCRIBBLE

DON'T FORGET TO START GETTING PETITIONS

IN SYMPATHY

7

Montgomery Forest lost an active member in July, "Mel" Patterson, who died as a result of an automobile accident. "Mel" was active with our Color Guard, and a Forest Representative to the Executive Committee. Many Tall Cedars attended the Cedar Service for him on July 23rd. We remember him well for his erect figure and fast step in the Color Guard, as well as his hospitality when we visited him as Worshipful Master in Brightwood Lodge a few years ago. The sympathy of the Forest goes to his beloved ones.

SICK

Horace Hunt was injured in June in a boat accident -- pretty serious but we hear he's improved a lot. Bobby Burness was sick in July, but Mort wouldn't let her stay sick long -- had to get that new house settled. "Hap" Geedy was overcome with a heart attack; and is getting himself squared away in the hospital in Wilmington, No. Car. "Thad" Jones, Father of "Bob" Jones, had a hernia operation on August 8th -- he's home now and coming along fine. "Shorty" Ross is improving and wants to hear from the gang -- he is now talking Cedarism. H. Lowell Sippers is home from the Hospital after his operation in May and from reports is coming along good. Just got word, that Jack Pinkston is in Holy Cross with a heart attack, pretty sick but improving daily. Sam Blankenship's wife, a Vivian, spent a little time at the Washington Sanitarium, but we understand is recuperating in fine shape. Elizabeth Thaden is presently limping around on a broken foot. Sorry is we missed anybody. We hope all of the sick and crippled respond quickly and can get up and around again real quick.

CRAB FEAST

The Crabfeast of Montgomery Forest held at the American Legion Hut on Powder Mill Road on August 20 was a real big success. There was plenty of crabs and we could have stood a few more customers. Remember to keep things going, you must support affairs.

GROWLS FROM DEPUTY DAWG:

5) Quite a few from Montgomery Forest enjoyed Prince Georges dinner-dance in June. Has anyone checked with Ina Whitall about what happened to our banner?

It was a hot time in the old town (Alexandria - and I do mean hot) dancing at Temple's June dance. That ole "Rebel Yell" booze I won on the raffle was only great!

Too bad Tom Marlew wasn't at Prince Georges family picnic to see the ladies throwing rolling pins at his "double".

Mrs. Deputy Dawg would sure like to know who short sheeted her bed during the Drum and Bugle Corps swing-er with Capitol. What a shock at 4 a.m.!

Jackie and Billy Arthur and Bob Alexander each took home the bowling pot-- that is jackpot -- twice. These deadeyes are sure out of my class. Al and "Pearl" Fleisher, "Nick" Nicholas and "Kay" and "Eddie" Bernardi also were winners.

CEREMONIAL

October 15th at the Takoma Park Masonic Temple, 2:15 p.m. Montgomery Forest will be Host to a District Ceremonial for District 20.

Now is the time for Montgomery Forest to set the Pace and bring in petitions for the occasion.

Keep you eye on Montgomery Decar Club, Inc. -- they are looking at property and things are on the go. Talk to J. Winston Blalock for the latest.

Cedar's Benefit Fund.

The semi-annual meeting of the Cedar's Benefit Fund is scheduled in September. It is the hope of the Representatives to bring out a report to show it's activities since its inception. Remember, each new member of the Forest, under 55 years of age, can belong to this worthwhile Fund, is they taken action within 60 days of their initiation into the Forest.
