January and February proved to be good months for Membership. Eight members were voted on at the January meeting (five new members, two reinstatement and one affiliation. Two new initiates were initiated in January (Bothers Gary Anderson and Cloyd Bittmer) and three masons were initiated in February (Brothers Pinkston, Wayne Hall and Elton Brown (MWGM. Bro Harry Hall, and Bro Warner were reinstated and Brother Karl Stadler, SDGTC PG Forest affiliated. Grand Tall Cedar John Huff was responsible for binging in most of the new members. Good job John. OK members, John has led the way for binging in new members, lets keep the ball roiling.

I have updated the Booster, 365, and memoriam listings in this issue of the ECHO, and hope that I have included everyone. If not please contact me ASAP.

50th Anniversary Dinner Party. Recommend that members not wait until the last minute to get their tickets. We have room for only 200 attendees. The Committee including GTC John Huff is working hard to make this event enjoyable. E-MAIL ADDRESS: CEDARMEN@AOL.COM

From The Chaplain

Harry Annis, P.C.C.C.
Chaplain

Your chaplain is available, his schedule permitting, for any clergy duties. Funerals, counseling or just talking over your problems. Call him at 1-301-949-7294.

One day the Superintendent of the Parole and Probation Dept called at my office. He asked if I would consider having a parolee from Illinois work for me. The parolee had been convicted of murder one. I told him it didn't mater what he had been convicted of. I would have to talk to him and see if he was willing to work for me. The parolee came in and he surprised me, he didn't say he was a born again or anything about religion, most inmates say they are born again and maybe they are, but they must prove it day by day. Jack said give me a chance and I will work for you as hard as I can.

He was hired and he did work hard. He was one of the fastest men I ever had. He loved me and I made him a lead man. He would work at night when I had to come back, he was a great help.

One night the parole Officer came by, he said who's down there working. I told him it was jack and he was shocked. He told me i was crazy to have Jack here with me alone. I told him anyone would have to go through Jack before they got to me. Jack would give up his life for me. He worked for me for over three years, and did not get into any trouble at all.

Jack got married and is doing just fine today.

Death can have no terrors, for it means being with God

We know, for instance, that if our earthly dwelling were taken down, like a tent, we have a permanent house in Heaven, made, not by man, but by God. In this present frame we sigh with deep longing for our heavenly house, for we do not want to face utter nakedness. So long as we are clothed in this temporary dwelling we have a painful longing, not because we want just to get rid of these "clothes" but because we want to have the full cover of the permanent. We want our transitory life to be absorbed into the life that is eternal.

Montgomery Cedarettes

Hi -

Well spring is almost here, the winter has been just great.

The January meetings was fairly well attended, even with the white rain.

The March Executive meeting will be at Nancy Smith's, the April Executive meeting will be at Lisa Allen's. Thank you ladies for hasting the Executive meetings.

The Clown Unit held their first Co-Ed meeting in February at the Gevinson's. The following new officers for 1998 are as follows. Nancy Smith, Chief Clown; Linda Gevinson, Asst. Chief Clown; Pearl Hunt, Secy/Tres. Linda has asked if anyone is interested in learning haw to apply clown make-up, to please contact her. March 1st is the next clown meeting at the Gevinson's, at 2 p.m. and we will be going out to dinner afterwards.

Clown Competition is April 25th, in PA. For details ask any member of the Clown Unit. So, everyone, come on out and cheer our clowns on.

The march Regular meeting will be March 28th at 8:00 p.m. There will be a turkey dinner at 6:30 before the meeting. So remember, come early, stay late, have a wonderful time with your friends, and you'll see it sure beats watching the Boob Tube.

For April, DON'T FORGET our 50th Anniversary Dinner Dance at the Golden Bull. Cost is $15.00 per person, Forest Officers have the tickets. See you there.

Also, be sure and make your room reservations for Convention on May 28-31, at Wildwood, N.J.

In closing, keep our sick, shut-ins and absent members, friends and loved ones in our prayers.

Till next time
Cedarly,
Corky
