Scribes Corner

At our Last meeting the Forest initiated two Master Masons as Tall Cedars and expect to imitate two more at the next meeting. The new members are: Daniel Clauber and Gerald Alleva.

For those members who have not attended any of our meetings recently, the the Grand Tall Cedars are doing their best to make meetings interesting and also are planning trips to various winderys and shows like the Singing in the rain in Frederick later this month.

Brothers, The Executive Committee decided to send out the Echo via e-mail to help defray the cost of he Echo. They also decided to set up a data base for the Forest. In the letter I sent I included space for information that will be used for the Forest data base. There has been some confusion with my using the dues card to send out the information, I mentioned in my letter that the card sent to the Life Members was used just to send out the information. The Echo will also be placed on our web page at

URL-<http://www.mastermason.com/montgomerytallcedars/>

For the small group of members who filled out the letter we appreciate your efforts in filling our the form which was mailed to you and returning it to me by mail or via e-mail. We will promptly send out your dues card upon receipt of the form. If you need another form please let us know.

I have cleaned up the 365, Boosters, and Memoriam listings and as you can see, only a few members, and Cedarettes participated. Those wishing to participate in the listings, please send me $3.00 for each listing for Booster or Memoriam and $3.65 for TCF 365 Club. The funds donated to 365 Club, or Memoriam will be sent to the Tall Cedar Foundation towards the monies that our Forest has donated.

Cedarly, Norm

GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

As the cold winter months have now passed and we are on the brink of spring it is easy to notice the renewal of life at its peak. The flowers and trees come to life, the hibernating animals rear their heads, and everyone seems to be coming outside and showing their smiling faces. This seems to be something we have been looking forward to for some time (maybe since last November). Springtime can serve as a constant reminder of how life is a precious gift which ebbs and flows through life's many obstacles. This is a great time for reflection on the many things life brings us; become a better friend, make amends with a family member, and spend some quality time with fellow Masons. Although the teachings of Masonry are practiced within the walls of the Blue Lodge, the promotion of these principles have no formal boundaries. Whether it is to visit a fellow brother who has been impacted by illness, or volunteering your time at a local charity, I would like to challenge my fellow cedars to make a positive impact on someone's life and spread the positive energy of springtime. A perfect place to renew our current friendships and enjoy the company of many other great Tall Cedars will be the annual Tall Cedars Convention and Parade in Wildwood, NJ in early May. There will be plenty to do, and I have heard that Marshall Gevinson's cooking skills will be on display for any members who would like to be entertained (safety equipment is highly recommended though, Marshall will be using sharp objects). The renewal of life would not be complete without a look to the great things of the past, such as the Spring Boardwalk Classic Car Show where some of the best automobiles are on display for all to envy. I have even heard it was such a fantastic event some fellow all Cedars have take a piece of history home with them, and what a great ride that must have been.

The Tall Cedar fellowship does not end at the convention though. Lets not forget about the group outing to Frederick, MD to watch one of the great movies of the 1950's "Singing in the Rain". Although I have never been to the Way Off Broadway Theatre I have to imagine that with such a signature show it will be a memorable time for all. It is a true pleasure that I am able to serve in such a wonderful organization and I look forward to many more memorable events to come. It was Brother Mark Twain who said, "Let us endeavor so to live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry", which can sum up the discussion of renewal and embracing the great things in life and making a difference.

Fraternally and Cedarly,
Christopher A. Anderla

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Spring has finally sprung!! I know many of the Cedarettes are very happy to finally see the warm weather coming!

Thank you to all who participated or donated to the annual MD Muscle Walk. The Cedars and Cedarettes of District 20 did a wonderful job of raising money for MDA -- over $10,000 total!! Congratulations to you all!

We are looking forward to many of the upcoming Cedar/Cedarette events. Many of our Cedarette members will be attending Convention at Wildwood, NJ. To those Cedar's coming, please support our Cedarette Clowns at the Friday evening competition. The hard work of our clowns is all done to bring recognition to Montgomery Cedars and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The clowns appreciate the support of all the Forest! Later in the month, the Cedars and Cedarette Clowns will be walking in the Rockville Memorial Day Parade. This is a fun event to see with a pot luck picnic later, at the Grand Tall Cedar's home.

I also hope to see many of you at Way Off Broadway later in May for Singing in the Rain. I hope it will be a great time. Our upcoming meeting in June will be a Chinese Auction which is always fun and also a great fundraiser. If you are doing some spring cleaning, save any suitable items for our auction.

A cold winter should lead to a beautiful summer...let's all have a safe and wonderful one!

Cedarette Love,
Terri
