Hello Everyone,

Our July stated meeting was a Call of the Roll, and was well attended. Thank you to the brothers who haven't been to lodge in awhile who showed up. It was good to see you there! I am thinking that we will have another Saturday Stated Meeting in October.

Our Eastern Star Chapter was there having their annual Bake Sale. There were so many good things to eat that it was hard to choose! My thanks to them for putting on a wonderful event!

A special thanks to our brother Hiram Abiff Luna who treated us to a great lunch provide by Chili's Restaurant. Bro. Hiram put a lot of work into this and is to be commended.

We are looking forward to August, where we will be busy with two degrees, and let's not forget about our Santa Maria BBQ on Aug. 20th. Hope to see you all there!

~Ed Davis, Master~

~DID YOU KNOW?~

Penryn isn't just the home of our beloved lodge, it is also a city in Cornwall, England. Penryn has a rich history dating back to pre-medieval times.

- Penryn translates to "promontory" in Cornish. The city itself is located on a spot of high ground between two creeks. It is about a mile north of Falmouth in modern day Cornwall at the South-Western tip of England. The town dates back to 1236, when it was first enfranchised by the Bishop of Exeter.
- Penryn was an important harbor in the middle ages, and it was known particularly for its export of granite. This Cornish Penryn granite was used in constructions worldwide throughout the centuries; most notably in the London Bridge.
- Griffith Griffith, the builder of our lodge, was from Wales, also in South-Western England where he worked at a Welsh stone quarry. Griffith wanted to name his new granite quarry in California after the Penrhyn Slate Quarry where he had worked, but later dropped the "h" to avoid confusion with the locals.

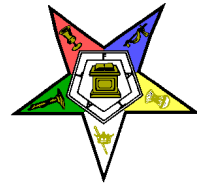

- Cornwall's town of Penryn has its own Masonic Hall, which is home to no less than 5 separate Masonic Lodges chartered under the Provincial Grand Lodge of Cornwall, which operates under the United Grand Lodge of England. The Lodges are:
  - Three Grand Principles
  - Pendennis
  - St. Gluvias
  - St. Budoc's
  - Cornish Maritime
